242.00 Pound £

They don't necessarily understand that bars are not allowed to serve drunks, and can react badly to being refused service. Probably unsurprisingly, most of the city's karaoke bar managers are reluctant to talk publicly. Some of them are fighting to hold on to their liquor licences, ??? and don't need any undesirable publicity. But down at Prince Karaoke on Quay St, the new owners say karaoke clubs are becoming unfairly singled out. Ben Offner doesn't have to consider lengthy when he's asked what issues him most about karaoke bars. Just last week, he was patrolling Newmarket and passed a group of young women coming out of a karaoke bar.
