This should provide some peace of mind in case an unforeseen event, btc such as a hack, bitcoin takes place. Binance offers protection for btc up to $250,000 if you have a USD balance, binance futures which the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insures.

Quarterly contracts on Binance incur no daily interest charges or binance futures fees, making them the ideal product for binance long-term holders. Funding fees and bitcoin interest payments are taken into account on all trades, every day. Daily interest expenses can add up quickly, especially when a position is held over a long period. These fees and interest payments can be avoided altogether when trading a quarterly futures contract. Daily Interest Payments - When trading with margin or a perpetual futures contract (available on Binance), trades will incur daily expenses.
